

2004 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Matt Brozek

Matt Brozek is a senior at Eaton High School. He is an eight-year member of 4-H and plans to enter University of Northern Colorado and major in Business Management. In 4-H, Matt took a variety of projects including market beef and swine, woodworking, and model rocketry. Matt credits 4-H for providing him with the most opportunities to develop his leadership skills. In school, he participated in FFA, FBLA, golf, wrestling, and track. His goal is to become a pilot in the Air Force. Matt is the recipient of the Josh Jarman Memorial scholarship. His parents are Wayne and Kathy Brozek from Gill.

Stacy Craven

Stacy Craven is the daughter of Harold and Lisa Craven from LaSalle, and is a senior at Valley High School. She plans to enter the University of Northern Colorado this fall and major in journalism with an emphasis in public relations and advertising. Stacy is a 10-year 4-H member and has taken horse, breeding beef, and swine, sheep, and photography projects. She is a member of the Valley FFA and Thespian clubs. She has served on the Weld County 4-H Executive Council since 1999, chairing several committees and holding various leadership positions including President. Stacy is the recipient of the Kenneth & Clarice Benson Memorial scholarship.

Kari Crosier

Kari Crosier is presently a freshman at Colorado State University majoring in Zoology. Her parents are Joann and Brian Crosier from Kersey. As a 4-H member, Kari participated in Vet Medicine, Photography, and Dog Obedience projects. While in high school, she was a member of FBLA, FFA, NHS, and played volleyball for two years. Kari is the recipient of the Emanuel Roth Jr. Memorial Scholarship.

Christie Gabel

Christie Gabel of LaSalle is the daughter of Steven & Audrey Gabel. She is a freshman at Butler County College in El Dorado, Kansas, majoring in Agriculture Business. Christie has taken market beef, sheep, and swine projects while in 4-H. She has won the Weld County Fair Grand Champion All-Around Livestock Showman award, and has had numerous champion awards with her animals. Christie is active in the Ag Club, Phi Theta Kappa, the International Honor Society, and the Livestock Judging Team at Butler. She is the recipient of the Norgren Family 4-H Scholarship.

2004 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Sara Konkel

Sara Konkel, a graduate from Roosevelt High School, is the daughter of Janet & Michael Konkel from Kersey. She is a freshman at the University of Wyoming and has a goal to earn a double major in Ag Business and Animal Sciences. She was a 10-year member of 4-H, taking cake decorating, pie baking, market lamb and swine projects. In High School, Sara was active in FFA, FBLA, FCA, volleyball and softball. At the University of Wyoming, she takes part in the Block & Bridle and Food Science clubs. Sara receives the Ben Wilson Memorial scholarship.

Katie Gore

Katie Gore wants to attend Colorado State University with a career goal of becoming a veterinarian. She is presently a senior at Eaton High School and has been a 4-H member for nine years. Katie takes an interest in community service, and has helped organize blood drives. Her primary projects in 4-H were horse, breeding and market beef, dog obedience and sewing. While in high school, Katie has participated in track, NHS, FFA, and Key Club. Her parents are Paula and Melvin Gore from Ault. Katie is the recipient of the Martin Produce scholarship.

Tommy Coufal

Tommy Coufal will graduate from Roosevelt High School, and plans to attend Western State College in Gunnison, majoring in Wildlife Biology. His parents are William and Marjie Coufal from Milliken. During his 10 years in 4-H, Tommy took model rocketry, market swine, wildlife, and several other projects. He also participated in Citizenship Washington Focus where he learned about the important roll we all play in our government. Tommy played football at Roosevelt, and was active in FFA and FBLA. He is the recipient of a Weld County 4-H Foundation Scholarship.

Kimberly Rankin

Kimberlee Rankin has also received a Weld County 4-H Foundation Scholarship, which she plans to use at the University of Colorado. Her career goal is to become an astronomer or a geologist. Kimberlee is a senior at Fort Lupton High School, and is the daughter of Charles and Penny Rankin. In 4-H, she was active in ceramics, pygmy goats, poultry and restoration projects. Among her many activities in school, Kimberlee was in band, French club, NHS, Student Council, and academic decathlon. Kimberlee receives a Weld County 4-H Foundation scholarship.

2004 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Melissa Brehon

Melissa Brehon is a high school senior at Platte Valley High School and plans to attend Northeastern Junior College in Sterling with a career goal in Ag Business and event planning. She is the daughter of Stan and Kathy Brehon from Kersey. Melissa is a 10-year 4-H member with primary projects of market and breeding swine, and market sheep. She is the secretary for the Weld County 4-H Executive Council, and has held leadership positions with FFA and NHS. Melissa enjoys playing softball where she has learned the value of teamwork. She will receive a Weld County 4-H Foundation scholarship.

Joshua Docheff

Joshua Docheff is the son of Jim and Kristie Docheff from Longmont, and plans to go to Colorado State University following graduation from Roosevelt High School. His primary projects during his nine years in 4-H were dairy and beef cattle, having also taken market sheep and swine. He has served as President and Vice-President for both his 4-H and FFA clubs. Joshua earned All American honors at the 4-H National Dairy Cattle Judging Contest in Madison, Wisconsin in 2001. Joshua is the recipient of the Helmut Brunner Memorial Scholarship and the Weld County 4-H Foundation Agriculture Scholarship.

Maggie Adams

Maggie Adams is a senior at Eaton High School and plans to major in microbiology at Colorado State University. Her parents are Tim and Judy Adams from Ault. Maggie credits 4-H with teaching her the value of trying new things and helping others. She took market and breeding beef and sheep, and cake decorating during her nine years in 4-H. In high school, she is active in FFA, FBLA, and Student Council. She also competed in gymnastics, diving and volleyball. Maggie will receive the Weld County 4-H Foundation Home Economics scholarship.

Eric Martin

Eric Martin is the son of Charles and Jeanne Martin from Milliken. He is a senior at Roosevelt High School and plans to become a high school business teacher after attending Colorado State University. His 4-H projects include veterinary science, leathercraft, weeds, and model rocketry. Eric says his greatest achievement in 4-H was his Washington Focus trip that he took in 2002. He has held numerous leadership positions in 4-H including President and Vice President. In high school, he has served as president of the National Honor Society and Future Business Leaders of America organizations, was captain of his Knowledge Bowl team, section leader for concert and marching bands, and captain of the golf team. Eric is the recipient of the Paul Hoshiko Jr. Memorial Scholarship.