

2006 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Alicia Adams

Alicia Adams is the daughter of Allen and Lynda Adams from Grover. She is a senior at Briggsdale High School, and upon graduation is planning to attend Aims Community College in Greeley to pursue a degree in nursing. During her eight years in 4-H she participated in market beef, ceramics, and vet science. She played basketball and volleyball in high school, where she also was active in FFA. Alicia is the recipient of the Josh Jarman Memorial scholarship.

Justin Panowicz

Justin Panowicz from Fort Lupton, is the son of Randall Panowicz and Celia Crowschel. Justin has been active in the 4-H shooting sports project during his seven years in 4-H. He has competed in state competition for both muzzle loading and shotgun, and nationals for muzzle loading. Justin is active in band and FFA at Fort Lupton High School, and plans to pursue a career in diesel mechanics. Justin is the recipient of the Kenneth & Clarice Benson Memorial scholarship.

Adam Bohlmeier

Adam Bohlmeier attends Platte Valley High School in Kersey, and wants to major in journalism at Colorado State University. In his 10 years in 4-H, Adam has participated in the dairy goat project, and currently has a herd of 25 registered LaMancha goats. He has exhibited his animals at state and national shows. In school, Adam is active in FFA, National Honor Society, and sports. His parents are Martin and Jeanette Bohlmeier. Adam is the recipient of the Helmut Brunner Memorial Scholarship.

Jason Haffner

Jason Haffner plans to attend Montana Tech after graduating from Weld Central High School. His career goal is to become a petroleum engineer. Jason has taken several projects during his 10-year 4-H career, including market sheep, market goats, and shooting sports. He was captain of his football team, and was active in National Honor Society and FFA. Jason will receive the Weld County 4-H Shooting Sports scholarship. His parents are Jerry and Sherri Haffner from Hudson.

2006 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Jessica Johnson

Jessica Johnson is the daughter of Wayne and Teresa Johnson of Greeley. She will attend either Northeastern Junior College or Colorado State University with plans to become an Agricultural Education teacher. For the past year since graduating from Platte Valley High School in 2005, Jessica has served as a State FFA officer. In 4-H, she has taken projects in horse, sheep, swine and market steers. She won high individual honors at the 2003 State Horse Bowl, and was a member of the 2004 State Champion and 2005 Western National Champion Horse Judging teams. Jessica is the recipient of the Ben Wilson Memorial Scholarship.

Megan Grieve

Megan Grieve is a sophomore at Colorado State University where she carries a perfect 4.0 grade point average. She wants to become an equine veterinarian or work within agricultural business. Megan was a 9 year 4-H member and was involved in many horse activities and events during that time. She won high individual honors at the 2004 State Horse Judging contest, and was a member of the winning horse judging team at the 2005 National Western 4-H Roundup. At CSU, Megan serves as an Ag Ambassador, and is on the College of Agricultural Science's Dean's list. Her parents are Robert and Marcia Grieve of Fort Collins. Megan will receive the Norgren Family 4-H scholarship.

Katie Johnson

Katie Johnson is a junior at Colorado State University with plans to be an Agricultural Education Teacher upon graduation. She is the daughter of Wayne & Teresa Johnson of Greeley. Katie participated in 13 different projects during her 4-H years in Weld County, and held numerous offices in her club. She has been a member of several judging teams that have gone to national competitions in both FFA and 4-H. Katie was a state FFA officer in 2002 and received her American Farmer degree in 2003. She is on the Dean's list at CSU, and has served as an Ag ambassador. Katie will receive the Martin Produce Company scholarship.

Rachael Krause

Rachael Krause is the daughter of Doug and Laurie Krause from Eaton. She is a senior at Eaton High School and plans to attend New Mexico State University upon graduation where she will study agriculture business management. Rachel is a 10-year 4-H member, participating in Horse and Heritage Arts projects. She participated in horse judging, and was a member of a team that competed at the American Quarter Horse Association Youth World Championship. At Eaton High School, Rachel was a member of varsity cheerleading, jazz band and wind ensemble, FFA, and Future Business Leaders of America. Rachel is the recipient of a Weld County 4-H Foundation scholarship.

2006 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Chad Daigle

Chad Daigle wants to attend the Colorado School of Mines after graduation from Weld Central High School to major in mechanical engineering. Chad has taken numerous 4-H projects in his 10-year 4-H career, most notably market beef, sheep and goats, and shooting sports. He is active in National Honor Society, Technology Students Association, football, and track at Weld Central. His parents are Chris and Katherine Daigle from Brighton. Chad is the recipient of a Weld County 4-H Foundation scholarship.

Kelsey Owens

Kelsey Owens is a senior at Platte Valley High School in Kersey. She is the daughter of Judith and John Owens. Her plans are to attend Hastings College in Nebraska to pursue a career as a secondary mathematics educator. Among her many 4-H activities, Kelsey traveled to Washington DC as part of the Citizenship Washington Focus program in 2005. She is active in sports at Platte Valley, as well as Future Business Leaders of America; Family, Career and Community Leaders of America; and National Honor Society. She tutors 5th grade students in math, and enjoys babysitting and scrap booking. Kelsey is the recipient of a Weld County 4-H Foundation scholarship.

Cortney Hodgson

Cortney Hodgson would like to become an animal pharmacist after attending Colby Community College in Kansas, and later Colorado State University. She is a senior at Platte Valley High School in Kersey, where she is active in FFA, National Honor Society, and Future Business Leaders of America. Cortney has a passion for showing livestock, and has exhibited her market lambs and hogs at county, state, and national shows. She was also active in livestock judging and had the opportunity to participate in national and international contests. She is the daughter of Marla and Mark Hodgson from Kersey. Cortney is the recipient of the Weld County 4-H Agriculture scholarship.

Amanda Showers

Amanda Showers is a senior at Briggsdale High School, and is the daughter of Myron and Kathleen Showers. Amanda aspires to become an attorney, and will attend either Denver University or Colorado State University to begin her pursuit of that career. Amanda's main projects in her 10 year 4-H career were rabbits and cake decorating. She exhibited the grand champion cake decorating project at Weld County Fair for the past two years, and also attended Citizenship Washington Focus. Amanda has had numerous leadership positions in high school organizations, including serving as president of Student Council. Amanda is the recipient of the Weld County 4-H Foundation Home Economics Scholarship.

2006 SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Kylee Willard is a senior at Weld Central High School and will attend Iowa State University in Ames, Iowa. She is the daughter of Kevin and Heather Willard from Hudson. Kylee would like to pursue a career as an International representative for the USDA. Market beef, swine, and sheep have been her major projects during her 4-H years. She was a member of the State champion livestock judging team that participated in national and international competitions. She received the outstanding member award from the Tailtwisters 4-H club where she held several officer positions including president. She is currently class president of her senior class at Weld Central, where she also is active in FFA, Future Business Leaders of America, National Honor Society, and Student Council. Kylee is the recipient of the Paul Hoshiko Jr. Memorial Scholarship.

Kylee Willard