

Bo Naibauer

Bo is the son of Mike and Kelli Naibauer of Eaton, CO. He is a 10-year member of Country Boots and Skirts 4-H Club and did the market swine and market beef projects. He is a senior at Eaton High School and is in FFA, and the 4-H and Livestock Judging Team. He plans to attend Redlands Community College in Oklahoma studying animal science and agricultural business in hopes of pursuing a later career in the livestock industry. Upon obtaining his degree would like to pursue a later career trading commodities, buying cattle for a major packer or working for a pharmaceutical company.

Bo began his 4-H career by showing market swine in his club and decided to show cattle a few years later. While showing cattle he learned how to fit, feed and make connections throughout the cattle industry. Along with showing livestock through 4-H Bo was also a member of the Weld County 4-H Livestock Judging Team. Through this experience he was able to expand his knowledge of the livestock industry and what characteristics are essential to creating a "good one". This knowledge will be beneficial as he chooses to further his education because it allows him the ability to better understand what qualities are essential to breeding a successful show animal. While at Redlands Community College he is going to pursue a spot on the livestock judging team.

Bo Naibauer is the recipient of the Weld County 4-H Foundation Scholarship.
